Dear Hon. Richard J Arcara

I am writing you, in order to express my sincere regret and apoloize for my actions, that have brought me here. I am ready to accept the punishment and consequences my actions require. When I read my P.S.I report, it made me realize how much Mental Health is still misunderstood and not recognized given that the awariness is more prevalent. I met my husband when I was seventeen years old, and he was twenty-one. I was going through a tramatic experience at the time. He was instrumental in me finding a place to live, as well as provided the financial means necessary. Due to me being at a influential age, I was susceptible to his guidance. Over time I was verbally abused, belittled and manipulated, which in turn I suffered self-esteem issues; and was reduced to a shell of nothing. I am not a bad person Sir, but I made a terrible decision because of fear and the possibility of losing my children.

I was in therapy for four (4) years with two (2) different facilities, and was unable to receive the insight and development needed in order to realize the core problems. Since my incarceration I have had the oppertunity to reflect and make the necessary changes to restore and rebuild all that was broken. I am now able to use my trials and tribulation which I gained during my incarceration to help other inmates to accept and acknowledge their mistakes to grow, and be a better, stronger more courageous woman. Before I was incarcerated I didn't understand the effects drugs have on an individual and their families. I now have more aware awareness on addiction, and the effects that comes with it. I didn't realize my actions could of contributed to an already growing epidemic. I have learnt from being housed with these females and witnessed it first hand how much of an impact drugs have played in there family life, along with their daily struggle I've heard of drugs and how it can affect one's life, but communicating and drug programs I have taken have changed my out-look and have left me ashamed even more of my actions. I am now more knoweledgeable and aware of how my actions could of played an vast scale, due to lack of understanding the full severity and out-come. My actions not only affected the unfaced individuals, but even more so my children's, who due to my absence is enduring insurmountable amount of stress.

My oldest daughter, Tattiyana, is fighting in school which is out of her character. She has expressed the struggles she faces everyday living without her parents. My son Diandrie and daughter Tahlia, needed glasses due to the amount of stress they are under which resulted in vision lost. My son is also experiencing his red blood cell eating away at his white which causes immune deficiency. I didn't realize my children would be doing this time with me, and I not only failed Karone but them as well. Due to my reckless disregard my family has endured devastating difficulties

Your Honor, incarceration is about Rehabilitation, and I stand here two (2) and a half years rehabilitated. Looking in the faces of my mistakes and gross conduct I am now fully aware and regretful of my actions. I havw completed many programs, and took course in order to obtain a G.E.D here in the States even though I have one in Canada. This process has shaped me and has allowed me to grow in order to give back to my fellow inmates in the process.

I have endured many obstacles, and struggles while being incarcerated. Which was very hard to over come in the beginning, but the lessons I have learnt, along with the programs, have helped me to face each new day. I now have a more profound understanding of myself and the difficulties that played a part in my gross misconduct on March 20, 2014. I have contemplated suicide a few times in the beginning of my incarceration, due to the devastating effects my actions played on my family, along with the persuasions I endured from other inmates. I soon realized that I would not be solving a problem, but creating a new one. My incarceration has allowed me to face the demons, I had been battling in my life and has helped me to be a better Mother, Sister Friend and a stronger Wife.

I am still growing, but thanks to the time I spent in jail it has allowed me to never make such a mistake ever again. I have gained so much knowledge, wisdom, and understanding that I am now able to go out in my community and educate others on making better, safer, more responsible choices. I have learnt that anything of value or worth is more priceless when obtained through hardwork and determination. My goal is to create an organization that will allow ex-con's to be able to go into Juvenile Faclities, and assist young adult's in seeing the path and distraction one's actions not only have on them, but also to shed light on how their families are affected even though free, seeing a love one behind bars battling and struggling with addictions or incarceration. In the twenty five months I've been moved to six different facilities which has caused it's own affliction on my Mental Health and Anxiety.

On the day of my arrest I suffered a seizure which would be one of many. I have a condition called "Conversion Disorder" which is not recognized because of the type of Pseudo-seizures I suffer from. Many Officer's are not familiar with this type of seizures and the way it presents itself physically, so it's often mistaken or appears to them that I am faking. As a result I have faced many dangers and have been hurt. Just to name a few, an incident occured and the attending nurse herself couldn't idenify my seizure, so she was advised by the officer to punch me in my chest or shock me, they even went as far as banging there keys on the bench. Due to her quick thinking she called the doctor on duty, and was informed of my condition. When I was housed at Steuben County Jail Jail, I also suffered seizures and two (2) ammonia packs was administered before the attending nurse arrived and advised that they should never use that on a patient such as myself. I have endured a lot of trauma and dangers, because of lack of knowledge for my condition. My seizures leaves me with speech impairment and temporary paralysis on my right hand side, which can last up to serveral hours before movement is possible. I lose control of my bladder and require assistants to use the bathroom, which is located in my cell. I have been left on several occasions to urinate on myself, because medical staff has been unavailable. I also experience food poison in which I endure severe pain along with diarrhea, which resulted in a clogged toilet, I was left in my cell with no medical assistant and an over flowed cell with fitches until the following morning. I have a hernia and third degree burn along with braces that have been untreated, which in itself creates it's own discomfort. I have endured many angish, affliction of pain and suffering with all the facilites since my incarceration. My anxiety and pseudo-seizures requires narcatic drugs in which the U.S Marshall Services does not approve, so I have been left with experimenting with medications that has server side-effects such as extreme shaking, dry mouth, diarrhea and sensitivity to noise. Please Judge Arcara do not take my condition lightly, even though I do not experience Neurological Seizures instead they are Physiological. It affects the body just the same with physical aliments. I find that the solution a lot of the facilities has come up with is to lock any person's with such aliments in a (Special Housing Unit, S.H.U) until they see fit. This is not a solution nor is it Humane.

Hon. Judge Arcara I am at yours and the Courts mercy, and am asking for time served. I understand Sir, that I am not an Americian Citizen, please take into consideration I have no Criminal History and no priers. I am taking full responsibilty for my actions and am deeply remorseful and ashamed. I have to live with the decisions I have made along with the suffering, afflection and lost my love one's have faced. I stand before you rehabilitated, wiser and ready to rebuild the damages I have caused Words cannot express the torture a Mother endures being away from her Children, in which makes it even more paramount being in another Country. I Thank you, and I am ready to face any decision you see fit and am very greatful for the time I spent incarcerated, because the lessons I have learnt are priceless.

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in regards to Stacy Samuels. Stacy is enrolled in our high school equivalency diploma class. Although she has a diploma from Canada, she qualifies to prepare for a New York high school equivalency diploma.

Stacy is involved in the classes. She asks questions and contributes to class discussion. She takes a lot of interest in her learning. Attendance is good and behavior is very good.

Stacy is also enrolled in some of the workshops. I have Stacy in my Book Study and Who's Who in American History. Again, she actively participates and does a great job with the projects and such.

From time to time we've have the opportunity to discuss goals. Stacy is very determined to stay focus and make it through her jail sentence. She desires to return to her family and help her children get refocused on school and family life.

It has been a pleasure working with Stacy. I believe she is determined to accomplish her goals.

Sincerely,

RE: Stacy-Ann Samuels

Good day Judge Arcara,

My name is Calmar Morgan and I am writing in reference to Stacy Ann Samuels, who is appearing before your court due to a terrible mistake she made. Stacy asked me to write a character reference letter, but the truth is that I was already planning on doing so before the request. Despite Stacy's poor decision making I still feel strongly about her and about her future.

Stacy is a person of good moral character, great ambition and comes from a strong family. I realize that might seem hard to believe, given the circumstances, but it's true nonetheless. Stacy would give her last to make another person smile; A while back she organized a program for less fortunate kids in Jamaica. The long hours she put into making the program work was cherished, by everyone around her and the lives she touched.

I have known Stacy for 13 years; I look up to her as a positive big sister, but in that time I have seen her go through ups and downs, just like any other human. But, when she is down she turns to her family and of course God for comfort and a peace of mind. Stacy has four kids that she loves with every ounce of her body and would give anything just to see them more often.

Stacy has made a mistake, and she is incredibly remorseful, and has already pleaded guilty. But after these pass two years, we're hoping Stacy can be given an opportunity to get a second chance, a second chance to reconnect with her kids and start her life over. I recognize that Stacy broke the law, but I do believe she understands the impact she made on a number of lives by her terrible decision. I hope you will recognize the power you wield with regard to the future of Stacy and make a fair decision.

Thank you,

RE: Stacy Samuels

Dear Judge Arcara

My name is Samuel Laleye and I am a close friend of Stacy and her husband Andrie. I have known her husband for 24 years and Stacy for nearly 18. I am a Godfather to their four children and have been a fixture in their lives for most of their childhoods. I have always acted as a counsellor of sorts when it came to their relationship and stood proudly as Andrie's best man when they married in 2009. I remember being at a dress rehearsal for the ceremony and being asked to say a few words before we parted. I spoke about the trials that they had gone through in their relationship and how it prepared them to spend the rest of their lives together. "Pressure either busts pipes, or makes diamonds and you guys are definitely gems" were the words I used.

I am aware the Stacy has plead guilty to very serious crimes and while I am disappointed in her poor judgement I am compelled to write this letter on her behalf because of the effect of her incarceration on her children. When I finally got a chance to speak to Stacy for the first time she filled me in on many of the details concerning her case. I was taken aback by how this person that I have known for so long could find herself in this position. I wanted to lambaste her and her husband but I knew that it was neither the time nor place for laying blame as her current address was all the reminder she needed. Since getting into contact with Stacy I have been able to maintain a stable line of communication between her and her family which has greatly helped with her state of mind. Stacy has a lot of broken pieces to fix when she eventually comes home, but I will be there to help in any way that I am capable. I consider Stacy to be a sister and if our roles were reversed she would do the same for me.

The past two years may be all you have to go on but they do not tell Stacy's full story. Stacy is a kind and caring woman who fights tenaciously for those she cares about. In 2003 Stacy rounded up her neighbors and fought against the city of Vaughan and the builder of the homes in their sub-division when they found out there were inconsistencies with the blueprints. In 2013 Stacy started "Fill a Pack" a drive to provide impoverished kids in Jamaica with school supplies. Stacy has opened her home to numerous individuals in their time of need and she always has a sympathetic ear for your problems.

Stacy knows what she did was wrong and she knows that the consequences are hers to own. There was no mistake, no one forced her, she made a choice and she chose wrong. The last two years have been especially trying for her children who have had to be split up among family members due to her absence. While I myself strongly believe that those who choose to do wrong must pay the price, I also feel the plight of the kids. I recently had them over to my place during March break and while they do their best to put on a bright face, I can see how not having their mother with them is taking its toll. The sooner Stacy can come home, the sooner she can begin to mend her relationship with the kids, the oldest of which is graduating from high school this summer. I thank you for taking the time to read this letter and ask that you consider its contents when you make your ruling.

Sincerely,

Samuel Laleye

To whom it may concern.

I am writing this character letter about the absence of my mom, Stacy-Ann Samuels.

The impact of my mother's absence has been hard on all of us especially on me, because my mother and I were so close. With my mom being absent for such a long period a lot of things have impacted us. Due to the circumstances we've had to change locations. We moved from Markham, a place we've know for most of our lives to Brampton living with our grandma. We also had to change schools because of the location. Another thing is we've have not been able to see family or friends since we have moved to Brampton to live.

When my mother was present with us everything was marvellous. We would do a lot of extravagant activities together as a family. We would go on bike rides, have walks in the community and even go to the park for a day. Not only that but we would also have family game nights every Friday and go to church on Sunday's. My mom was a wonderful mother and wife. Since my mother's absence I have missed out on an abundance of things. When my mother was here I would play soccer, associate with friends and family and do extracurricular activities more often.

I would love to have my mother back in our presence so we can be a complete family once again. We would love to help her turn her life around for good and turn to god. Also, help her get a job and provide for the family. But most importantly be the mother she always was.

Sincerely,

Di'andrie Samuels

Stacy Samuels is my mother. The things that my mother has done for me is: put food on the table when I need it, has given me money when I ask and she loves me unconditionally.

When my mother is home she cooks food so that the rest of my siblings can eat. She is always in the kitchen cooking food so that there is enough food for everyone in the house.

When I want to go out to the movies or the mall with friends my mother would give me money so that I could go out and enjoy myself. My mother also gives me money so that I can buy the things that I need For Example: if I need school supplies, clothing or shoes.

My mother shows me unconditional love. For Example: when I am going to bed she will talk to me until I fall asleep or she will tell me how much she loves me every night before I go to my bed. Another thing how she shows her love is when we both go on the road. When my mother and I go on the road we will turn up the music and sing the song that is on the radio. My mother also shows that she loves me by the amount of time we spend with each other.

On behalf of me and my siblings we need our mother to come home. We need a mother who loves us the way she does; we need our mother who takes very good care of us when we are hurt. We are suffering without our mother and we need her to come home.
